

ILEAD's "The Night Sky and You" Bob Mead Text: Audubon Field Guide to the Night Sky
Jan. 13 through Feb. 3, Wednesdays (4 classes) Noon to 2 p.m. D.O.C. House
The class website: <http://www.unclebobpuzzles.com/ILEADsky/SkyandYouMenu.html>

	A	B	C	D
1	Lesson	Topics	Readings	Doings
2	January 13	1. Getting to Know You	Aud. Field Guide	See it: (observing challenges)
3	A Clockwork Blue, White, Yellow, Orange and Red	2. Your Questions	pp. 19 - 21, 37 - 51	Orion belt/sheath, Rigel,
4		3. The Starry Workshop	color plates 17, 18	Betelgeuse
5		4. The Living Solar System	and 22 - 40	the Dippers
6		5. Sharing the resources		Web it: visit websites Sky&Telescope,
7		6. Slide show		Pic of the Day and Christa MacAuliffe
8
9	January 20	1. Question box	AFGuide	See it: Canis Major / Sirius,
10	On the Shoulders of Giants	2. Astronomy timeline	pp. 74 - 88	colors in Pleiades, Taurus,
11		3. Four season highlights	pages and plates for	Hyades, Auriga;
12		4. Web tour	individual assignments	Moon terminator
13		5. Individual Assignments		Web it: Pic of the Day, IDA, AASVO
14		-short reports, Class 4
15
16
17	January 27	1. Question box	AFGuide	See it: New Moon,
18	Nuts and Bolts (and Lenses?)	2. Skywatching equipment	pp. 89 - 96	earth shine, colors in M42,
19		a. Binoculars v. Telescopes	plates 69, 76, 82, 86,	Gemini: Castor v. Pollux,
20		b. Helpful accessories	106, 114, 127, 131,	split Mizar, double cluster,
21		(like a hammock)	145, 151 and	Perseus
22		3. Recent events	read the sections on	Web it: Binocular specs (S&T) and
23		4. What an amateur can do	those constellations	visual techniques.
24		5. Observing techniques
25
26	February 3	1. Question box	update your	Keep looking up.
27	Getting the Back Stories	2. Sky maps	web urls
28		3. Using a planisphere
29		4. Individual reports
30		5. Course evals.
31				